

A Seminar of Hope, Direction, Healing,
Knowledge and Understanding.

Understanding the territory and the skills required to negotiate the journey facilitates a family's development and promotes growth. This seminar will take you on an educational, research based and inspirational journey that culminates in a road-map to guide stepfamilies and honors God. Whether a new stepfamily or even after the kids have left home, this seminar will impart wisdom for the present, past and future and tools for the journey.
